Introduction

Serving a Dutch menu would not be complete without wines from the same region. This is why we offer a wine list that consists only of Northern European wines.

In the south of the Netherlands, the Hulst family makes wines since 1970. Since then Apostelhoeve has gained name as the Netherlands' premier quality wine. Just across the border is Belgium's only chateau: Genoels-Elderen, Europe's most northern areas where Chardonnay is grown.

Zooming out to Germany. Luxembourg and the Alsace, there is a lot of quality wines from regions that are not always well known. Especially from German soil, we present you with a selection of grapes that we would love you to taste. In red and white, we offer original northern grapes but no mainstream tastes!

From France and Spain you will find some classics as Meursault and Chablis and wines from the Rioja, Bordeaux and Bourgogne. Apart from the Chianti Italy features - grown at a Stein Hotels Group villa - we invite you to have a look at it's northern wines from the Alps and the Dolomiti.

Restaurant management is pleased to help you discover these new wines from the old world and although we are thrilled by new world wines, we hope you will enjoy the old world gems we present you.
